[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO FEB. 1.

EASTERN STATES.

The Louisiana Imbroglio.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 31.—To-day Monicure, of Caddo, General Emery, Capt. Smith, U. S. A., Capt. Barr, of the Wilderness, Collector Casey and Chief of Police Baker, testified before the Congressional Committee.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Sam. G. Courtney today secured a stay of proceedings from Judge Barnard, in the case against Connolly, until March 15th by which time the court of appeals is expected to decide the case of the People vs. Ex-Controller.

The Custom House Investigation Committee resumed to day. No evidence of importance adduced. Babcock and Porter will be heard on Friday.

Movements of the Russian Boy.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 31.—The Ducal party leaves at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning for the Mammoth Cave, accompanied by a number of ladies and gents. After a brief exploration of the cave they will return to the railroad and proceed to Memphis. The party goes by special train.

An Election Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—McLure, defeated candidate for the State Senate, declares his intention of contesting the election on the ground of fraudulent voting.

Tweed's Trial.

ALBANY, Jan. 31.—The trial of Tweed will not take place until the March term. This practically puts it to the close of the Legislature. It is probable that Tweed will now take his seat.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Official Business.

WASHINGTON, 31.—The delegation appointed by the National Convention, which met in Baltimore last Fall, appeared before the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, and submitted their theory of the best means of reviving the American ship-building. They will be heard by the House Naval Committee to-morrow.

The total amount of United States currency outstanding at this date is $390,067,070.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—In the Senate Scott reported from the Finance Committee a bill declaring the meaning of the Internal Revenue Act of July 14, 1870. It declares that the meaning of the act was to exempt from the two and a half per cent. tax all dividends of earnings and undivided profits of all bank, insurance and other incorporations, mentioned in the act, which accrued to surplus funds during August and until 7 o'clock Dec. 31st, 1870. In all cases where such corporations had already paid or would thereafter pay upon their earnings, incomes and undivided profits for previous months of that year a tax equal to at least 2½ per cent. per annum was substituted. It also directs the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to refund the tax paid upon all such earning for said five months to all corporations that have paid the tax of 2½ per cent. upon all dividends for 1870 and 1871. The bill passed.

Trumbull, of the Judiciary Committee, reported adversely on the bill to authorize the President to accept the resignation of a Judge of any Court of the United States.

The amnesty bill was taken up. Chandler addressed the Senate at length. He declared himself opposed to universal amnesty.

Sumner replied to the argument of Morrill, of Maine, made last week against the constitutionality of the supplementary civil rights bill. The power to pass the bill, he said, was given in the grant of power to abolish slavery, this legislation being necessary to make the abolition complete. The colored voters were a new power in the land and must be considered.

Morrill replied. He denied that the close of the war brought any new rule of interpreting the Constitution, and he charged Sumner with having advocated this bill for using colored voters as a co-operative power, instead of by reasons addressed to the Senate.

In the House, the bill in reference to appeals to the Supreme Court, after discussion, was passed substantially as reported.

Bingham, without success, strove to have the bill modified so as to restrict writs of error to capital offenses, claiming that if it applied to merely penitentiary cases, it would delay and impede justice in the case of Mormon prosecutions.

On motion, the reports of the Committee of Ways and Means on the action of the Secretary of the Treasury in negotiating the new loan, were taken up. Kerr, representing the minority of the committee, declined to consent to having the matter voted on without discussion.

Sargent moved that the discussion proceed with on the Indian appropriation bill, but the House decided to go on with the syndicate matter and the resolution reported by the Committee of Ways and Means justifying the Secretary of the Treasury in the matter of negotiation.

Cox proposed a resolution directing the Committee to report a bill introduced by him forbidding the payment of the committee on the sale of U. S. bonds.

Dawes briefly recapitulated the facts of the case and defended the report of the committee.

Kerr, of the minority of the committee, contested the report.

Beck claimed that three months interest, which the syndicate has received on bonds without paying any consideration thereof, is $2,025,000, which sum given to the commission made its aggregate compensation $2,402,500. These comparisons applied to remainder of loan, would allow the syndicate to reap the magnificent harvest of 24 millions, and he urged that no such expenditure was contemplated in the funding law. He calculated the profits to syndicate at almost $1,350,000. It would be borne in mind that the immense sum was made by Jay Cooke & Co., in the refunding of less than 135 millions out of the 150,000,000, authorized to be refunded, and that the adoption of the resolution reported by the majority of the Commissioners, would not only be a license but an order to the Secretary of the treasury to proceed to refund the other $1,300,000,000 on the same terms and through the same agents, whereby they would pocket at least three per cent. on the whole amount as they had already done of a part. Congress might just as well by direct note put thirty nine millions into the pockets of Jay Cooke & Co.

Another minority member asked Dawes if the pending resolutions were adopted by the house, would the Secretary of the Treasury regard it as authority for him to go on in the same way with the rest of the loan? Dawes replied that the Secretary of the Treasury would be assured by adoption of the resolution. In no respect had he violated the law.

The Committee of Territorial Delegates held a regular meeting this forenoon on Garfielde's suggestions that the homestead bill be so arranged that the settlement on lands may count after the survey as part of the period of the five year's occupation requisite to establishing of homestead claim. It was unanimously concurred in, Garfielde & Merritt were selected as sub-Commissioners of Delegates to confer with the Committee on Territories and public taxes on the subject. The Territorial Committee is now fully organized in Committee with ex-Governor McCormick of Arizona, as Chairman, and J. H. Riley of California as Clerk. They meet hereafter the during session on Mondays.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, Jan. 31.—A dispatch from Barcelona says stringent measures have been adopted to prevent further riotous disturbances.

It appears that the crowd who assembled Tuesday, burned houses where duties had been collected and fired on the troops. The latter replied with such effect that two of the rioters were killed and another seriously wounded. The place is now quiet, and owing to precautions of the authorities no further trouble is expected.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—In the National Assembly today, debate began upon the recent report from the Committee providing for the withdrawal of France from the treaty of commerce with England.

The syndicates of the towns of Aix-Vichy, Plombieres and Barges, have petitioned the Government for the abrogation of the law against public gambling and offer three million francs per annum for the privilege of licensing gambling establishments at these watering places.

Labor Strikers at Brussels.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 31.—The journeymen carpenters of this city are on a strike and the masters have closed their shops. The men are now parading the streets. No disturbances have occurred.

Thanksgiving Ceremonies.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Thanksgiving ceremonies in St. Paul's cathedral for the Prince of Wales are announced to take place on the 17th February.

A Journalist Exiled.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The director of the Official Journal, published under the control of the Commune, has been sentenced to transportation.

MEXICO.

Insurgent Movements.

MATAMORAS, Jan. 31.—Gen. Quiroga flanked Cortina yesterday, and now holds a position this side of Carmago, intercepting communication. Cortina had previously telegraphed here for reinforcements of 2,000 men. His command is only 600. It is supposed Quiroga will advance on Matamoras, leaving sufficient forces near Camargo to prevent Cortina from moving.

The severest storm of the season prevails and obstructs military operations.

Additional Mexican News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—A private letter from Hermosillo, Sonora, January 7th, states that Gov. Pesquira, with the Federal contingent from Sonora, had already exchanged shots with the advance of the rebels in Sinaloa, and a decisive battle was hourly expected. It also states that an Apache chief, supposed to be the celebrated Cachise from Arizona, was killed and scalped at Chiraghoari, and that his pistol, sword and silver head band are now at Ures. When last heard from via Tucson, Cachise was on the reservation at Canada Alonosa, New Mexico, and there is probably a mistake in the individual.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—The new California Stock Exchange opened at sharp 10 A. M. to-day. About fifty members were present. Thomas J. From the Jacksonville Sentinel: The cattle in the Lost river country are suffering on account of the severe winter they have had in that section. A correspondent predicts that if we should not have a favorable spring, a great many cattle must perish for want of food.

A letter from Hillsboro, 31st, gives this: All is quiet on the Tualatin and tributaries adjacent. Real estate is steadily advancing under a brisk demand. Several lots have been sold within the last few days in this place. The farmers exhibit a great deal of anxiety about their young grain. The extent of damage done by the late freeze cannot yet be ascertained. The plank road enterprise seems to give universal satisfaction among the farmers and villagers. The timbers are all out for the steam mill at this place. As Hillsboro has been blamed for being too slow, its citizens wish it distinctly understood that they are now ready to negotiate for a switch to the plank road. Several heavy bodies of lands changed hands at the Court House to-day. Business is still lively in all departments.

A correspondent writing from Warm Springs Agency on the 8th of January, says of the weather there: "Snow commenced falling here on the morning of the 17th of December, and attained a depth of ten or twelve inches in the valley. The weather was very cold on the 23d, 24th and 25th of December, and again on the 1st and 2d of January. I have no means of knowing the degree of cold, as the thermometer we used last month has gone from our gaze, but I'm sure I never experienced such in my life. Snow is now rapidly disappearing, and the weather is warm and pleasant. So far I have learned of but few cattle or horses perishing, but a 'back-set' in the weather now would strew the hills with many carcasses." There has been much severe weather since the above was written, and it is not improbable that there has been considerable loss of cattle.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.—An exchange tells how in "making up" its forms some years ago, two articles got mixed. One was about a cane presentation to a certain Rev. Dr. Mudge, and the other described a patent hog-killing and sausage machine. The writer says the doctor got mad about the "notice," which isn't to be wondered at when we learned that the two pieces got so tangled up that they read as follows: "Several of the Rev. Dr. Mudge's friends called upon him yesterday, and after a brief conversation the unsuspecting hog was seized by the hind legs and slid along a beam, until he reached the hot water tank. His friends explained the object of their visit, and presented him with a handsome gold-headed butcher, who grabbed him by the tail, swung him round, cut his throat from ear to ear, and in less than a minute the carcass was in the water. Thereupon he came forward and said there were three times when the feelings overpowered one, and for that reason he would not attempt to do more than thank those around him for the manner in which so huge an animal cut in so many fragments was simply astonishing. The doctor concluded his remarks, when the machine seized him, and in less time than it takes to write it, the hog was cut up into fragments and worked up into delicious sausage. The occasion will long be remembered by the doctor's friends as one of the most delightful of their lives. The best pieces can be obtained for fifteen cents a pound, and we are sure that those who have sat so long under his ministry will rejoice that he has been so handsomely treated." The doctor, it is recorded, stopped his paper, and we don't blame him.

The tariff bill introduced in the House, by Representative Burchard, a member of the Committee of Ways and Means, proposes a reduction of the tariff to the extent of $24,000,000, including $4,000,000 on the free list. EASTERN STATES.

General Eastern News.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1.—This morning's Picayune contains the valedictory of A. M. Holbrook, for thirty-five years one of the editors and proprietors.

A Galveston News special dated Austin yesterday says the indictments against Governor Davis, Secretary of State Newcomb and Attorney General Alexander, were returned to the Court to-day by the District Attorney. One of the charges is misdemeanor in office, giving a false certificate of election to W. T. Clark, member of Congress from the Third District, whereas Giddings was elected by a clear majority.

A Times' Washington special says it looks as if the amnesty bill would not pass the Senate.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The will of Jim Fisk was admitted to probate to-day. The estate is sworn not to exceed a million dollars. His widow is the sole executrix.

At a meeting of the Oyer and Terminer Court, this morning Judge Ingraham announced that he had denied the motion of the counsel for Stokes to quash the indictment against him. His trial will accordingly take place under the present indictment. Stokes and his counsel were in attendance.

Ex-Controller Connolly's bondsmen qualified to-day in sums which they offered, and were fully accepted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Senate.—Sherman introduced a bill for the relief of Miles G[illegible] naval contractor.

Sawyer introduced a bill to encourage telegraphic communication between America, Asia and Europe.

Lewis made a personal explanation, saying that he was always in favor of equal rights to colored people.

Logan called up the pending resolution to reconsider the vote by which the Chicago Relief bill passed. The resolution to reconsider the Chicago Relief bill was debated till the expiration of the morning hour, when the amnesty bill was taken up. Carpenter spoke at length in favor of the principle of Sumner's amendment to the bill, but against the provision forbidding negroes' exclusion from churches as unconstitutional and also undesirable for colored people. If this objection were obviated by the amendment, he would insist that if those who wanted amnesty did not accept the civil rights bill, he would let them wait for amnesty.

In the House the debate was resumed on the report of the Committee of Ways and Means as to the transactions of the syndicate. Maynard, of the Committee, made an elaborate argument in defense of the Secretary and in support of the resolution of the majority of the Committee. At 10:30 the House voted on the syndicate resolution, and it was adopted—109 to 86.

The Chinese Language.

[From the Overland Monthly.]

In learning English, a child commences with letters, but the elementary things in Chinese are syllables, because what we should call letters are full fledged words. Instead of our twenty-six letters, the Chinese have about five hundred syllables and these are combined together, in an almost unlimited permutation, to form their fifty or sixty thousand words, each represented by a separate character. From the paucity of their syllables, they have to give them many significations. Thus, for instance, Rev. S. R. Brown informs us that the syllable chae has two hundred and twelve meanings; ching, a hundred and thirteen, etc. Hence, if one Chinaman says to another simply chae, he may mean any one of two hundred and twelve things, which is practically nothing; and he has, therefore, in order to limit it somewhere, to speak another syllable of kindred signification, either before or after it. These two syllables (sometimes three) he utters so quickly together, that they form one word as much as in English, which fact makes it inaccurate to call Chinese a monosyllabic language. In other words, the arrangement of the syllables in English is invariable; so that, in case of the word "incomprehensibility," for instance, we can not write any two of the syllables together to form a new word; whereas the Chinese (supposing it had so long a word, though it very seldom has one of more than three syllables) could pick it to pieces, and make perhaps a dozen, or two dozen new words. It is hardly too much to say that a Chinaman can unite together any two of the five hundred syllables which have any kinship in meaning, and make an intelligible word.

Let me use a homely illustration. Suppose two Chinamen sit down on opposite sides of a table, one of them with five hundred blocks, smeared with glue at both ends. He might pick up and show to the other any one of them, and he would at once call out any one of its dozen meanings, for each of which he would make a different character; but to communicate any extended or precise information, his friend must glue them together in couples or threes. This is why the Chinese is not, as it is usually called, a monosyllabic language. We can say in English, "I went to town last night, and found my friend, and went with him to see the play," all in monosyllables; but it is impossible to utter in Chinese anything but the shortest sentences in monosyllables, as ngo shwo, "I say;" ne she shwe? "who are you?" A rapid speaker in English does not separate his words by greater intervals than his syllables; neither do the Chinese. The error of calling the language monosyllabic has arisen from the fact, that in writing, the Chinese make one cumbrous and complicated but integral, character for every word; but that word may, nevertheless, be spoken in two, three, or even four syllables.

Meeting of the State Central Committee.

SALEM, February 1.

The Republican State Central Committee met this day, pursuant to the call of the Chairman.

On motion, C. P. Crandall, of Multnomah, was chosen Secretary of the Committee.

Messrs. Kelly of Lane, Welling of Baker, and Durham of Grant, were, on motion, appointed a Committee on Credentials.

The Committee reported that they found properly accredited members of the State Central Committee present from the following counties: Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Coos, Curry, Columbia, Douglas, Grant, Jackson, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, [illegible] Umatilla, Union, Wasco, and [illegible]. The counties of Clatsop, Josephine, Polk, and Washington, not represented.

The report of the Committee was adopted.

On motion, it was resolved that the apportionment of delegates in the next Republican State Convention be made upon the basis of one delegate for each county, one delegate for each sixty votes cast for the Republican candidate for Congress in 1870, and an additional delegate for each fraction of forty or more in each county.

On motion, the time for holding the State Convention was fixed upon M[illegible] 20, 1872.

On motion, it was recommended to the County Committees to call their primary conventions on Saturday, March 2d, and County Conventions on Saturday, March 9, 1872.

On motion, the Committee proceeded to vote upon the place for holding the Convention, when Portland was agreed upon.

The Committee then adjourned.

T. B. ODENEAL, Chairman.
C. P. CRANDALL, Secretary.

Grant and the General Order Business.

The following remarks are from the Sacramento Union:

Leet, one of the witnesses before the New York Custom House Committee, stated yesterday that he obtained a share in the general order business by means of a letter from President Grant to Collector Grinnell. He put this letter in evidence. It was written March 18th, 1869, about a fortnight after the President was inaugurated, and commends Leet to Grinnell as a man of business capacity and of integrity. Upon this recommendation Grinnell gave Leet an interest in the general order business. We remark upon this that it was not at all probable that Grant then knew anything about the general order business. In fact the [illegible] about it till the [illegible] of 1870, when [illegible] investigated the matter. It appears to be one of those abuses without the slightest authority of law, inaugurated by party hacks and sustained for party [illegible] and for [illegible] There is every reason to believe that the President knew nothing of it, and there is, moreover, no reason to believe that Leet, at the time he received the letter from Grant was not an honest man, whatever he may be now after three years' education among New York politicians. The complaint is not that the President recommended men who have proved dishonest, but that the legislative branch of the Government [illegible] not by stringent law put an end to such [illegible] iniquitous as the general order system, which the New York politicians have been practicing. If the President now, after the exposure of it and its backers, fails to [illegible] overthrowing the [illegible] and [illegible] this department of the parasites who have been swindling the public then he will be to blame. Leet's letter convicts him of no wrong and hardly of an [illegible]. However, it will lead to a more thorough [illegible] and the end, let us hope, in cleaning out of the White House and its precincts the leeches who have been imposing on the President's good nature and credulity.

We add the [illegible] of Leet's testimony, as follows:

[illegible] that the [illegible] of the President to Grinnell was the only one he ever heard of on the subject. He never told the President when he obtained the letter that he wished to become an applicant for the general order business; never [illegible] Grinnell unless he would give him the general order business, and did not threaten to get appointed Collector, as he had no influence to justify such a threat; neither General Porter nor Babcock were ever [illegible] a cent's worth [illegible] the business, his arrangement [illegible] with Bixby about ten months, didn't belong to any army mess at Washington; never told [illegible] the receipts [illegible] the [illegible] of any [illegible] to hurry goods into stores, no one but his partner and himself was interested in the profits. the profits in one year were $12,000, and from the bonded [illegible] general order stores [illegible] him the President regretted that he (Leet) had entered into any arrangement with Bixby; witness's impression for the [illegible] of the President's [illegible] was the bringing of his name and those around him in connection with the witness and with New York matters.

The bill which has passed the [illegible] legislature [illegible] the sale of liquor in that State. It [illegible] that no intoxicating liquors shall [illegible] sold without a license and that no license shall be issued unless the party applying therefor shall give a bond in the sum of $3,000 with two freehold sureties, conditioned that they shall pay all damages to any person incurred in person or property by the selling of liquor under the said license, the penalty to be recovered in the name of the State for the use of any person injured by liquor sold by such licensed persons.

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1872.

The Republican State Convention.

The time fixed by the Republican State Committee for holding the State Convention is the 20th March; the place selected is Portland. We refer to the proceedings of the Committee, published in another place, for information as to basis of representation and other particulars. The Committee thought it desirable to hold the Convention at a comparatively early date, so as to avoid interference with spring work in the agricultural counties. An early day for holding the Convention was named for the further reason that it was deemed advisable to take early measures for a thorough organization of the party throughout the State. Two years ago the average majority against us was less than five hundred. This year this meager majority should be overcome. A considerable addition to the voting population of the State has been made during the last two years, and it is believed that a majority of the new comers are Republicans. The Democratic party will be forced to bear the odium of its profligate legislation of the last session, and will suffer from its indefensible acts. Moreover, under the hopelessness of the national situation for that party and the dilemma of not knowing what to do or what course to take, Democratic discipline is perceptibly relaxing, and there are numbers of the party in every county who see no necessity of making political war, since all the objects which they have heretofore striven for are confessedly lost. Under all these circumstances the opportunity presents many favorable aspects for the Republicans, who, [illegible], by a [illegible] and energetic effort, can recover the State.

Something About Monopolies.

In the course of an article on the extortionate charges sometimes made for telegraphic dispatches the Herald asks leave to "submit an humble opinion." Part of said opinion is delivered in the words that follow:

> Telegraphers and public carriers alike are bound from the very nature and attributes of their existence to do for the public that business they agree with the public to do. So far the law is clear. The grievance comes in just at the point where, [illegible] they hold themselves ready to discharge the [illegible] to their calling, they charge an excessive price for doing their duty. They enjoy a monopoly, so that the public have no choice, we must pay the unreasonable price or go without [illegible]. This is abuse of power.

This opinion the Herald calls "humble." When it is considered that the Herald itself, under the Oregon litigant law, is committing daily the very abuses which it charges against the telegraph monopoly, it will appear proper enough that it should dress its opinion on such a subject in the garb of humility. A prime grievance against the litigant law and the Herald's charges under it comes in right where the grievance comes in against [illegible] charges in telegraphing. In fact, the case is worse against the Herald than against the telegraph monopoly. For no man is compelled by law to use the telegraph; if he don't want to pay the rates he can let the telegraph alone. But all persons who have business in courts of justice are compelled by law to use the Herald, or the proceedings will be without validity; and the law authorizes that paper to charge a price that is excessive and extortionate. That paper,—we adopt its own words,—"enjoys a monopoly so that the public have no choice,—they must pay the unreasonable price." If a man is unwilling to pay the rates demanded by the telegraph company he can use the mails. But however unwilling he may be to pay the prices demanded by the Herald under the litigant law, he is forced to do it. The law prohibits him from using another newspaper. This, to employ our neighbor's own words once more, "is abuse of power." And this statement is no "humble opinion," either. It is indisputable fact.

The Herald's usefulness as a reformatory [illegible] and an enemy of monopolies and extortion [illegible] will always be [illegible] till it gives up the monopoly of printing which it holds and the oppressive charges which it makes therefor. We are sorry to see the just [illegible] of our neighbor impaired in this way. The great Edmund Burke once received from his Government a small annual pension as a testimonial of his inestimable [illegible]. That pension was attacked by the upstart Duke of Bedford. Burke replied in his celebrated "Letter to a Noble Lord," in which he showed that the Duke of Bedford himself was nothing but a creature of royal bounty; that all his wealth and standing were derived from [illegible] grants, pensions and monopolies conferred on his ancestors out of favor [illegible] by a corrupt king. So when our neighbor of the Herald attacks the telegraph monopoly we tremble lest that monopoly may answer by pointing to the monopoly of litigant printing which was created by law expressly for the Herald's benefit; which, at the expense of the public, has made that paper [illegible] and [illegible] has converted it [illegible] from a [illegible] minnow living in a modest brook, into a great whale sporting on an ocean of litigant bounty.

A few days ago the Herald, by way of commendation of the cut-throat swamp land act, stated that the law provided that those lands could be sold only in limited tracts of 320 acres to [illegible]. We [illegible] that plea, which the Herald now says was a "slight inadvertance." Is it "slight?" If [illegible] be sold only in limited quantities under proper restrictions, they would not all go into the hands of a few speculators. But as it is, speculators will get the bulk of them, and, having ten years in which to make payment, they can sell one-fourth of the lands ere pay-day arrives, for money enough to pay for the whole. The speculators will certainly make a good thing; hence the eagerness with which the lands have been taken. Just what the State is to make, however, does not appear.

A Berlin correspondent of a leading New York journal writes concerning the relations between Germany and Russia. He says that all the fine speeches of the Emperors and all the smooth show of good will simply covers a hollow friendship. The bulk of the German people, the writer says, are convinced fully that the close amity that professes so much is but a short-lived affair. The hereditary Grand Duke of Russia is noted for his strong anti-German leanings and prejudices.

The litigant organ at Salem thinks it would be well to curb the "railroad monopoly" of our State, and to teach it that it is the "servant of the people." Of course that paper would object to any interference with the litigant printing monopoly.

Considerable numbers of men are now being hired to work on the locks at Oregon City. The conditions are, that they shall stay till after the election and vote the Democratic ticket.

Financial Policy.

A faction in Congress have been trying to censure Secretary Boutwell for his management of the new loan, but the Secretary has been fully sustained by the Ways and Means Committee, and is now sustained by the House. It is impossible to please this faction on any point which has connection with the public debt. In the days of the war they started out with declaring the debt incurred in suppressing the rebellion unconstitutional; they have since tried all possible expedients and devices to get rid of it, from paying in greenbacks to direct repudiation, and it is but natural that they should carp at the successful finding of a considerable portion of it at a lower rate of interest.

One of the leading charges against the present financial policy is that the Secretary is paying off too much of the debt. The people, however, have rather commended than condemned this policy. With the immense debt left by the war of the rebellion hanging over the nation, it was of the utmost importance that European nations should have a practical demonstration, not only of our ability, but of our determination to pay as fast as our obligations matured.

Among the monarchies of the old world the great capitalists were disposed to question the abilities of a republic to cope with so enormous a responsibility. They thought the people might resort to repudiation, and they were indisposed to deal in our securities on as favorable terms as they did with the most effete of the old monarchies.

The rate of interest at which we were compelled to issue our bonds during the war, when the question was one of national life or death, was ruinous to run for long terms, and yet, even after peace was declared, it was found impossible to refund at a lower rate.

Secretary Boutwell, fully sustained by the President, saw in the resources at his command, if continued for a few years, the means of paying off such a portion of the debt as would materially reduce the annual interest, and at the same time convince the capitalists of Europe that, as a nation, we had the ability and disposition to pay every cent of our debt at maturity. Once convinced of that fact, they were only too willing to have the bonds run indefinitely at the interest they were paying. With what fidelity and perseverance Mr. Boutwell has pursued his policy, even amid obloquy and misrepresentation, we need not say here. The policy has had the desired effect, and European capitalists are now asking for our securities, and paying a premium for them instead of holding back and demanding a bonus for taking them for negotiation.

Thus has the policy which has been assailed by even the friends of the administration as extravagant and oppressive, been justified, and proved to be the best that could have been adopted for the interests of the country. A large amount of the national debt is paid off, and the way is opened for refunding the entire balance at a much less rate of interest than would have been possible under any other policy, thus making a saving of many millions of dollars in interest annually.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.

There are ballot boxes set up in the Queen's Theater, London, and visitors are asked to decide which of Shakspeare's plays shall be produced at that place in the present year. At last accounts the vote stood thus: Macbeth, 250; Hamlet, 227; King Lear, 165.

A memoir of the youthful hero, Ulric Dahlgren is published. His services during the war will be remembered, and his attempt to rescue the prisoners of war in Richmond, in which enterprise he lost his life can never be forgotten. No youth of more beautiful promise or more glorious performance on the list of martyrs which our country cherishes.

A Mrs. Smythe, of Indianapolis, Ind., now has her fifth husband, and she has never changed her name. She was born a Smith, her first husband was named Smith, her second, Schmidt, her third Smyth, her fourth Smithe, and her present, Smythe. If she doesn't intend to try any other name till she has run through the Smith family, we pity her—and them.

The Alvarado Beet Sugar Company in California are preparing to plant an enlarged area of land in the Spring, and they expect to harvest 12,000 tons of beets in the next crop year, whereas this year they only had 5,000 (though if the season had been good they would have had twice as much,) and last year they only had 3,000 tons. The 12,000 tons, it is supposed, will enable the mill to commence work in August next and keep busy for eight months.

The Postal Telegraph.

Much has been said upon the proposition to connect the telegraph and postal service. The following summary of the bill will give a very exact notion of the character of the measure:

Section 1 establishes postal telegraph offices at all postoffices on telegraph lines and all other postoffices where the gross receipts for postage are $500 a year, within ten miles of a telegraph. Section 2 fixes the rates uniform for equal distances at twenty-five cents between offices not over 250 miles apart; fifty cents between offices over 250 miles apart, and under 500 miles; night rates, twenty-five cents for 1,000 miles; rates to be refunded for delays or mistakes in transmission. Section 3 provides for prepayment by stamps, and for the destruction of all telegrams within one month. Sections 4 and 5 fix press rates for each one hundred words; special dispatches at fifty cents by night, and seventy-five cents by day; fixes rates for press associations and for proper wires for newspapers. Section 6 defines the duties of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General over the telegraph lines. Section 7 authorizes the Postmaster General to contract for the transmission of telegrams at the above rates with all parties who will furnish and operate necessary lines of telegraph. Section 8 contains provisions against tampering with telegrams, and makes telegrams privileged communications, as private letters. Section 9 authorizes the Postmaster-General to reduce rates in the manner therein prescribed. Section 10 incorporates the Postal Telegraph Company, for the performance of postal telegraph service on behalf of the Postmaster-General. Sections 11 and 12 authorizes the company to buy existing lines, and obliges it to purchase all such lines if required by the owners thereof at an appraised value fixed on the capital stock at an amount not exceeding the last cost of its lines. Section 13 authorizes the company to open offices whatever the wants of business may require. Section 14 authorizes Congress to purchase lines at any time at the appraised value. Section 15 reserves to Congress the right to alter or amend the act.

PRUNING.—The Calistoga Tribune says:

If you wish the top of a tree to spread, cut off the top side of the limb outward within the eighth of an inch of a bud, the latter on the under side of the limb. If you wish the limbs to grow perpendicular, cut from the under side outward, slanting, the same distance from a bud, which in this case must be on the upper side of the limb. All pruning should be done just before the full of the moon, as the sap is flowing freely at that time, and the limb heals over before it has time to dry up. In cases of crooked trees, when it is desirable to straighten them, it can be done by cutting off the last year's growth, in a similar manner to pruning the limbs as above, cutting from the lower side of the tree about a quarter of an inch from a bud, leaving the bud on the upper side.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Emile Roussey, who saved so many lives at the ferry steamer disaster at Oakland wharf July 4, 1863, died this morning from disease contracted on that occasion. He had just been informed that $800 had been raised for himself and family at a theatrical benefit, when death occurred.

Another lot of fine Merino sheep from Patterson Ranch, Alameda, will be shipped to Japan by the America.

Edward Wilson, convicted of robbery in San Joaquin county, was taken over to San Quentin for five years.

Wind light, northeast; commenced raining at 6 P. M.

The new City Hall investigation to-day took more definite shape. W. Mills swore he had the contract for furnishing the stone from Telegraph Hill for the concrete and sold it out to Jourdan for $7,000. The latter then delivered any kind of rubbish just as it came from the quarry, dirt, clay and all, and it was all used without being screened. Had he known that the material as furnished by Jourdan, would have been accepted he would not have taken $20,000 for the contract; but he supposed that the specifications were to be complied with. The architect told him if he was Jourdan's partner he (Laver, the architect) would be his friend; and he then told Jourdan that, seeing he was in with the architect, the contract on which he expected to make $5,000 was worth $10,000 to him, Jourdan; and so the sale was made. Other witnesses testified to the character of the stone used. The general impression outside is that, if there has been stealing going on, it was not done by the Commissioners or with their knowledge. It is probable the investigation will last several days.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 1.—Postal Agent Barstow telegraphs from Ogden that the western bound trains are blockaded at Weiser station on the Union Pacific, and that he does not think he can get the mail through before Thursday next.

Christian Leave shot himself by the grave of his wife at Lone Mountain to-day. His wife had been dead some time, but her death seems to have permanently affected his brain. He was about 62 years of age. Leaves a grown up son and daughter, who was married to the late Rev. Mr. Morshake. He left no letters or anything to show any premeditation of the act. He placed a deringer to his forehead and evidently died instantly. This is the third suicide by shooting within a week in San Francisco.

The Coroner is holding an inquest this evening on the body of Lorenzo A. Phelps who shot himself on the Potrero.

But little rain has fallen up to 10 P. M.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 1.—In the Senate, the entire afternoon was consumed in discussing Pendegast's trespass-law bill. It was defeated by a vote of 8 to 26. The Assembly passed the appropriation of money for the erection of a monument to Gov. Bigelow, and a bill providing for [illegible] the names of persons becoming citizens of the United States.

The Japanese Embassy visited the Legislature to-day and will dine at the Orleans this evening with members of the Legislature and other invited guests.

NEVADA.

A Suicide.

ELKO, Feb. 1.—Word has been brought from Humboldt Wells of an attempted murder by a young man named Charles Billig. Having asked a young lady named Sheldon to marry him, she refused. He then drew a pistol and shot at her twice, but failing to hit her he placed the pistol to his head and blew out his brains. The affair has created great excitement, as the parties are well-known.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, Feb. 1.—Notwithstanding the postponement of the bill, the Mormon leaders still profess strong hopes of Utah being admitted into the Union at this session of Congress.

Under a joint resolution of the Legislature the Territorial election takes place next Monday.

Nearly 3,000 tons of ore and bullion is waiting transportation. Of the above amount 1,500 tons is from the Emma Mine.

There is great stagnation of business owing to the snow blockade on the Union Pacific railroad.

CORINNE, Feb. 1.—Snow is drifting badly all all along the roads and getting hard. At Rawlings a heavy wind is prevailing.

Minds With Skylights.

[Oliver Wendell Holmes in Atlantic Monthly.]

No, I continued, I don't want to have the territory of a man's mind fenced in. I don't want to shut out the mystery of the stars and the awful hollow that holds them. We have done with those hypæthral temples that were open above the heavens, but we can have attics and skylights to them. Minds with skylights—yes—stop, let us see if we can't get something out of that.

One-story intellects, two-story intellects, three-story intellects with skylights. All fact collectors, who have no aim beyond their facts, are one-story men. Two-story men compare, reason, generalize, using the labors of the fact collectors as well as their own. Three-story men idealize, imagine, predict; their best illumination comes from above, through the skylight. There are minds with large ground floor, that can store an infinite amount of knowledge; some librarians, for instance, who know enough of books to help other people, without being able to make much other use of their knowledge, have intellects of this class. Your great working lawyer has two spacious stories; his mind is clear, because his mental floors are large, and he has room to arrange his thoughts so that he can get at them—facts below, principles above, and all in ordered series; poets are often narrow below, incapable of clear statement, and with small power of consecutive reasoning, but full of light, if sometimes rather bare of furniture, in the attics.

The Hartford Courant calls Wendell Phillips "The Volcanic Man," and says it is evident that there are times when, if he were bottled up and denied full utterance he would explode in ten thousand pieces.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention for the State of Oregon will be held at the city of Portland at 11 A. M. on Wednesday the 20th day of March, 1872, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Member of Congress, six Delegates to the National Republican Convention to be held at Philadelphia, June 5th, 1872, three Presidential Electors, and for the transaction of such other business as may be thought proper.

The several counties will be entitled to delegates in such Convention, as follows:

Baker	6	Lane	13
Benton	11	Linn	17
Clackamas	14	Marion	24
Clatsop	4	Multnomah	24
Coos	5	Polk	11
Curry	3	Tillamook	2
Columbia	3	Umatilla	5
Douglas	13	Union	5
Grant	6	Washington	9
Jackson	10	Wasco	7
Josephine	3	Yamhill	12

The State Central Committee recommends that the several counties hold their primary elections on Saturday, March 2d, and their county conventions for selection of delegates to the State Convention, on Saturday, March 9th, 1872.

T. B. ODENEAL,
Chairman State Central Committee.

C. P. CRANDALL, Secretary.

SALEM, Feb. 1, 1872.

REMARKABLE CURE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE GUADALOUPE MINE.

"THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON."—CASE NO. 6001—SECOND SERIES.

GUADALOUPE MINE, near SAN JOSE, Aug. 18, 1871.

DR. A. H. LOBYEA & CO.—For a long time I have been afflicted with Rheumatism in my hands and feet, the pains most of the time being very severe. On the 7th of July I procured some of your "UNK WEED REMEDY," and after taking only three bottles, find that I am quite restored to health and strength. I have had the Rheumatism for eleven (11) years, and think that the success of the "UNK" in curing a disease of so long standing, in so short a time, is very remarkable.

As a tonic and appetizer I have never met with anything equal to the "UNK WEED REMEDY." During the time I was taking it I gained fifteen (15) pounds in weight. Trusting that this certificate may be useful in inducing others affected as I was to try the "UNK,"

I remain, very truly yours,
JAMES T. BROWN,
Supt. and Agent Guadaloupe Mine.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE

Between our Local Companies and the

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL!

THE DIFFERENCE IS JUST THIS: OUR LOCAL Companies are under the control of Stock-Holders and Directors, who suck the orange and give you the peel. They have had little experience in the business, and are about as likely to go wrong as right: their running expenses are over thirty per cent. of their income, their Policies are forfeited on non-payment of premium, and are subject to attachment beyond a certain amount, and they are allowed by law to invest their capital in mining stocks, which have already cleaned out a host of men in this country, and may do the same again. On the other hand, look at the old time-honored

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL,

Only thirty-seven years old—purely mutual—dividing all profits [illegible] with no Stockholders, [illegible] men with the experience of a quarter of a century, with a big accumulated capital and reserve fund; economical in expenses; all Policies non-forfeitable and exempt from execution to any amount; prohibited by State law from engaging in any wild-cat speculations; and to cap the whole, divided last winter $790,197.86 cash among its Policy-holders; while our home companies have not yet distributed a cent, except some thousands of dollars to stockholders, and nobody knows when they are likely to. Do you see the point?

Yes, I do; and I'll insure with the New England. I'll see the Superintendent of Agencies, JOS. MIDDLEMISS, [illegible], No. 8 Front St., and [illegible] send my application to the General Agent, WALLACE EVERSON.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1872.

CITY.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR CITY EXPENSES.—The general appropriation bill passed by the Council, Wednesday evening makes the following appropriations: Salary of Police Judge, $1,800; City Attorney, $1,800; Auditor and Clerk, $2,100; Street Commissioner, $1,500 Clerk of Police Court, $600; Chief Engineer, $500; Chief Engineer as Fire Warden, $300; Secretary to the Fire Department, $200. For pay of Surveyors and assistants on surveying, making estimates, plans and specifications for street improvements and such other duties as may be prescribed, and the incidental expenses connected therewith, $4,000. For street monuments, boxes, covers and testing the accuracy thereof, $200. For grading, fencing, planting trees and incidental expenses connected with the improvement and keeping in order of the Public Parks, $1,800. For repairs of sewers and removal of nuisances in front of public property, $100. For stationery and public printing, $1,200. For advertising ordinances, notices and reports, 1,500. For expenses of the Council Chamber and offices adjacent, including rent, fuel, lights, furniture, repairs and incidental expenses, $2,200. For supply of water to cisterns, hydrants and public buildings, $1,200. For quarterly allowances to the several fire companies, $8,600. For the erection and repair of fire hydrants, $1,000. For the construction of cisterns and connecting cisterns with water mains, $1,200. For repairs to cisterns and cistern tops, including new tops, when required, $1,600. For repairs to engines and fire apparatus, and furnishing supplies to the several fire companies, $1,500. For repairs to engine houses, $600. For expenses of investigations as to the best mode of supplying the city with water, $2,500. In addition to the above appropriations it is estimated that the expense of the Police Department for the year will be $18,000, and for lighting the city, $13,000.

A TEMPERANCE RALLY.—A temperance executive committee makes the following announcement: "Grand temperance rally and mass meeting at the Court House in this city on Wednesday [illegible]ary 7th, at 7½ o'clock. The Rev. W. [illegible] will deliver a lecture at that time. [illegible] in Your Lot." We trust the citizens of Portland will not fail to be present on this occasion. Mr. Meisen has taken great pains in preparing this lecture to make it one of interest to the entire public—especially to the taxpayers of our State. Come one, come all! Admittance free."

PRESENTATION.—After the completion of the business of the meeting at Willamette Engine Co's house last evening, a handsome gold headed cane was presented to Mr. J. H. Lyon, the Secretary, by Mr. S. A. Moreland, in behalf of the members of the company. This testimonial was given to Mr. Lyon as an acknowledgement of his very efficient services not only as an officer but as a member of the company. The occasion was one of those happy episodes which go to [cement] friendships among men and cement[e]d ones.

CLOSE OF SCHOOLS.—The Christmas terms of the Bishop Scott Grammar School and the St. Helen's Hall School, closed on Thursday. The present term of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will close this week. Interesting public examinations of the various classes were [held] Wednesday and Thursday. This afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Children's Exhibition will take place, at the Taylor street church, and the Musical and Literary exhibition at 7 o'clock P. M., at the same place.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.—The tug boat Ben Holladay will tow the Hattie. The barkentine Amelia commenced receiving cargo for San Francisco, yesterday. The barkentine Jane A. Falkinburg was taking on salmon for Honolulu, yesterday. She will finish loading here by Sunday, and on Monday proceed down the river where she will receive the balance of her cargo. The bark Harrington is to be towed to Astoria to-day by the Dixie Thompson. The Oriflamme will receive cargo to-day.

FROM THE UPPER COLUMBIA.—The prospect for an early opening of navigation on the Columbia is not encouraging. News from the Dalles yesterday was to the effect that the thermometer was standing at 28° and ice was running freely in the river. Lower down, the river was gorged and the ice was solid. At Collins' place, on Wednesday, [teams] engaged in hauling hay, were crossing on the ice. This don't look much like a weakening of the blockade.

TEMPERANCE.—Mrs. Carrie F. Young is reported as doing effective service in the lecture field.

A grand mass meeting of the friends of Temperance will be held at Olympia, on the second Wednesday in February.....A temperance mass meeting is announced for Friday evening at Corvallis. G. W. C. T. Jacob Stitzel, and G. W. Sec. M. C. George, of the I. O. G. T., are expected to address the meeting.

COLLECTION DAY.—Yesterday was a busy day on the streets. Everybody seemed to be looking for everybody else, and everybody had their hands full of bills due. In not a few cases, calls were made upon persons who were like the man that was called upon for charity donations. To the first applicant, he replied that he had nothing to give, and to each of the others, that he had just given it all away.

A PROTECTIVE UNION ORGANIZATION.—A protective union of the lathers of this city was organized Wednesday evening with the following named officers: Stephen Maybell, President; W. W. Taylor, Vice President; T. D. Coffman, Secretary; E. H. Cary, Treasurer; H. Buffington, Sergeant-at-Arms. The object of the organization is to secure uniform and fair rates of wages.

CONCERT.—Philharmonic Hall was filled last evening, on the occasion of the concert, given by the Catholic choir. Our musical reporter was one of those unfortunate people, who could not be present to enjoy the rich musical treat which, we are informed, was given the auditors. We hear the affair very highly commended, however, by excellent musical critics.

GOOD TEMPLAR'S ELECTION.—The following officers for Nonpareil Lodge, I. O. G. T., were elected Wednesday evening: R. Bird, W. C. T.; Miss M. L. Pollock, W. V. T.; O. F. Cooper, W. S.; W. S. James, W. F. S.; Mrs. W. S. James, W. T.; Mrs. C. A. Lowe, W. C.; C. A. Vollum, W. M.; Mrs. R. Bird, W. I. G.; Charles Schultz, W. O. G.

A BREAK.—Eggs fell—in price—yesterday and in consequence [illegible] sometime were broken. Cause of the fall—a large invoice received by steamer from California. We regard this importation as an egg-sell-ent idea.

BODY FOUND IN THE RIVER.—Yesterday morning the body of a man was found floating in the river a few miles below the city. The clothing indicated that the man had been a soldier, but there was no identification.

PERSONAL.—The Advocate says: "A telegram from Rev. J. F. DeVore, dated Olympia, January 31st, announces the marriage at Tumwater, W. T., of Hon. J. W. Brazee, of the Cascades, to Miss Phemia Bliss, of Tumwater.

WANTS REPAIRING.—First street, between Lincoln and Hall, is in a very dilapidated state, and requires looking after or some one may apply for heavy damages for injuries sustained.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Oriflamme is announced to leave San Francisco at 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The valentine trade is beginning to get lively.

The next skating carnival is to come off on the 22d inst.

The wether has gone back to its normal condition and Webfeet are happy.

The Police Judge was "sad and lonely" yesterday morning—not a case in hand.

Judge Reed's little boy, who was shot the other day, is now considered out of danger.

Two companies of infantry at Vancouver will be sent below on the Oriflamme, for Arizona.

Eighteen jurors for the U. S. District Court are to be summoned to appear next Thursday, the 8th.

The exhibition (on the 2d of February) of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will be given at the lecture room of the Taylor street Methodist Church instead of the Academy building as heretofore announced.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

PERSONAL, LOCAL AND GENERAL.

[From the Advocate.]

There have been thirty-five conversions during the recent protracted meetings in the Evangelical Church, at Salem.

On the 21st ult. occurred the silver wedding, or 25th anniversary of the marriage of Rev. J. W. York and Pamelia A. Quinton. They now reside at Corvallis.

In aid of the new Baptist church at Olympia, $80 came all the way from Wisconsin. The Tribune says: It comes from friends of W. H. Mitchell, Esq., our worthy townsman, and will prove a valuable contribution to the First church of that denomination in our city.

SERMON BY REQUEST.—The following note signed by official members, was handed to the pastor of Taylor street M. E. church:

PORTLAND, Jan. 26, 1872.

REV. G. W. IZER—DEAR SIR:—The undersigned official members of the Taylor street M. E. Church, respectfully request you at such time as may be in harmony with your own convenience, to repeat the sermon which you some time ago preached from the text, "Lay hold on eternal life."

We are persuaded that its repetition will be productive of much good, and that your concurrence will give general satisfaction to the congregation at large.

We are glad to learn that Bro. Izer has yielded to the above request, and has appointed next Sabbath evening as the time when he will repeat the sermon to which allusion is made. No doubt the congregation will be highly gratified with this arrangement.

Praise-meeting at the Congregational church, at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, February 4th, 1872.

16. Doxology and benediction.

The public are cordially invited.

AMUSEMENTS.

ENTERTAINMENT BY STUDENTS OF THE PORTLAND ACADEMY.—The entertainment promised by the students of the Portland Academy will be held in the Taylor street M. E. Church, beginning with the children's exhibition at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, and closing with the musical and literary entertainment at 7½ o'clock in the evening. The programme is full of life and interest. Admission, fifty cents to both entertainments.

ORO FINO THEATRE.—There was a fine audience last evening, notwithstanding the rush to the Catholic Concert. The play "Bell Demonio or The Pope of Rome." Mr. Waldron, in this play, appears in one of his greatest characters, Cardinal Montalto, afterward Pope Sextus V., and there is an excellent cast of the whole piece. The drama will be presented again to-night.

CALL FOR IT.—There is a letter in this office for W. C.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A WANT SUPPLIED.—It has been claimed that we require a large wholesale book and stationery store. If such was the case, Messrs. Gill & Steele have undoubtedly done away with the complaint. They have bought W. T. Shanahan's stock of pianos, etc., and have rented two stores on First street, near Ladd & Tilton's bank, in which to keep their enlarged stock, and are still unable to find room for all.

The next school term of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary begins Monday, February 5th. For information apply to

T. F. ROYAL, Principal.

NO CHARGE FOR CONSULTATION.—Dr. Aborn wishes to inform the afflicted that he makes no charge for consultations. His opinion in all cases is given free of charge.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect unsurpassed. The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State, and the dining hall is unequaled. The rooms are all newly furnished. The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. The ceilings are four feet higher, which adds greatly to the cheerfulness of the rooms. The table is kept in a style to correspond fully with the appointments.

THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY was incorporated in 1835, and is therefore the oldest purely Mutual Life Insurance Company in the United States; it has cash assets of over $10,000,000, and is the only Company on the Pacific Coast governed by the Massachusetts Non-Forfeiture Law, offering all the advantages of age and prudent management, its average expenses being lower than any other Company in the United States. It also offers protection against forfeiture by virtue of the MASSACHUSETTS NON-FORFEITURE LAW, which is a feature of great importance, and should be carefully considered by all persons seeking insurance. Office,

TESTIMONIALS.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. C. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty Testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, besides being a great economy in point of time. We therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before incurring any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our house and interview her pupils.

For reference see advertisement.

NAT. H. LANE, East Portland.

EAST PORTLAND, Jan. 3, 1872.

MRS. M. C. WHITE—Respected Madam—Having heard of your System of teaching the Pianoforte, known as the Robins' American Method, and having been present a few days since, at the exercises of one of your pupils, Miss Lane, of East Portland, I was much surprised and exceedingly gratified, at the perfect performance of the most difficult pieces, (such as Gotschalk Bango, etc) and this after the short term of six months tuition.

Allow me to express my approbation of your System of your Instruction, and with my best wishes for your success allow me to subscribe myself,

Yours Respectfully,
TH. PARROT, Prof. of Music,
ja6d1m and Leader of the East Portland Band.

Fraudulent Misrepresentations.

Among the [illegible] frauds of the period, there is one which especially deserves the reprobation of all who place a proper value on health and life. The swindle referred to consists in the attempts of irresponsible parties, in different sections of the United States, to force upon the market vile astringent compounds manufactured out of damaged or worthless drugs and refuse liquor, as preparations possessing the rare medicinal virtues of the most popular and efficacious of all vegetable tonics—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

The concocters of these "local bitters" are, in the truest sense of the phrase, public enemies. Their fiery potions inflame the stomachs, stupefy the brains, and shatter the nerves of those who are unwise enough to accept them as substitutes for the famous Vegetable Invigorant, that for twenty years has been known throughout the Western Hemisphere as a standard article.

The fame of Hostetter's Bitters as a health-preserving vitalizing medicine, is as wide as the world, and the miserable attempts of needy nostrum-mongers to supplant it would be treated with silent contempt, were it not that serious consequences sometimes follow the use of the nefarious compounds in question. Whoever recommends any of them as remedies for Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Consumption, Intermittent Fever, Rheumatism, or any other complaint for which Hostetter's Bitters is a known specific, is guilty of a moral, if not a legal misdemeanor. At this season, when the sun is releasing from the earth, in the form of unwholesome vapors, the active principle of disease, a course of Hostetter's Bitters will be of the utmost service to persons with feeble constitutions.

LITTLE HOMES!

WE HAVE OBTAINED MANY TESTIMONIALS, which appear in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN, for the purpose of answering once for all the many inquiries in relation to our "LITTLE HOMES." We refer to show to strangers, through men of known integrity in this community that they are all we claim for them—cheap at present prices, and the speculation in them lies in the future growth of Portland, in the building of Railroads and Bridges over the Willamette—which is merely a question of time—and in the fact that in less than one mile distant, City Blocks (200 feet square) are selling for from two to three thousand dollars, and in less than two-and-a-half miles (on a direct line) blocks are selling as high as $200,000 per block! Just think of it! $50 per acre for land, and 2½ miles distant, $200,000 per acre! New York city is over twenty miles in length and six miles wide, and many other cities in the United States are half that long, and quite as wide, and if Portland becomes a metropolis she will require this land for business purposes. Thirty years ago we could have purchased a section of land where the business portion of Chicago now stands for $10 per acre $50 for a five acre tract. Thirty years ago we could have purchased the town site of Portland for a Cayuse pony—but we didn't have the pony! Twenty years ago an itinery individual, with neither money nor friends, found himself in Portland without a red. He purchased a basket "on tick," and filled it with oranges, on the same terms, and went to peddling. Twenty long, eventful years have since [illegible]. Still that sturdy old pioneer has stuck to Portland, and worked his way through thick and thin; and now where do you think he is?—in the poor house, and owes for the basket! But to our

TEN-ACRE TRACTS!

The land is level—some timbered and some nearly clear—its altitude about the same as Portland—good roads—never overflows, and the price is regulated by the quality of the soil and the distance from the city.

THE FIRE-PROOF
PHOENIX,
Cash Capital, $600,000.00,
Total Assets, $1,301,452.98,
Deposit in Oregon, $50,000.00.

Organized on a firm financial foundation, with its Capital FULLY PAID UP IN CASH, it has Assets amply large, set aside for the sole protection of those holding its Indemnity against LOSS BY FIRE.

THE PHOENIX INSURANCE CO. of Hartford, has for many years faithfully prosecuted a Fire Insurance Business successfully and ably, [illegible] meeting every [illegible] paying equal to them, moving vigorously forward in its noble work, with malice to none and charity to all, [illegible] where the Fire Fiend viciously destroys, and [illegible] guarding it.

The losses of the "OLD PHOENIX" in the great Chicago Conflagration and [illegible], will only absorb about 50 per cent. of its SURPLUS, leaving the Capital unimpaired, with a Surplus of Half a Million Dollars.

DEPARTMENT FOR THE PACIFIC STATES,
No. 424 California Street, San Francisco,
R. H. MAGILL, Manager.

Parties holding policies in the lately suspended and defunct Companies can be furnished reliable "time-tried and fire-tested" indemnity in the solid old PHOENIX, of Hartford, by application to the following Agents:

The Western Union Telegraph.

RAPID ENLARGEMENT OF POWER AND SUDDEN CHANGE OF BASE.

From the New York Herald, January 12th.

At four o'clock yesterday the Western Union Telegraph Company, occupying buildings 145 Broadway and 86 and 88 Liberty street, succeeded in making an almost entire change in the location of their operating rooms in this city, in a time so brief as not to excite remark at the ends of any of the hundreds of telegraphic wires now located in almost every considerable village, town and city here and abroad. This most remarkable accomplishment will be better understood when it is known that the average number of messages handled daily in the company's buildings here is 25,000. This number was felt to be more than the rooms previously occupied afforded sufficient space to manipulate with the dispatch desired; and finally, having failed to secure the Astor House for a telegraph building, the fifth story of the old building was brought into use, and the change was completed yesterday. On this floor and in the other operating departments in the building there are between 250 and 300 persons employed. Beneath the floor upon which they operate the machines, and between it and the upper part of the floor below, more than 1000 insulated wires are laid from all possible points and for almost all possible uses in connection with telegraphing. In the other rooms are the cable department and the city department and with the advantages gained by the addition of an entire floor to the operating space, it is promised that in the city department alone there will be a gain of fully ten minutes in the time of de[illegible].

COUNTERFEIT.—A New York paper says: A number of exceedingly dangerous counterfeits of the denomination of $20 have lately been put in circulation. How large the number may be is not known, but the notes are nearly faultlessly executed, and it is with great difficulty that even experts can detect them. The only weak point in the execution is the central figure, which is a little too coarsely done. When presented in a package this figure is not [illegible] in rapid counting, it being [illegible] by the [illegible] or the overlaying bills. The other points of the bill are so skillfully executed as to stand the test of the strongest light.

[illegible] steadily [illegible]. The [illegible] navigation in the upper Columbia [illegible] from East of the mountains will be liberal. Is it not advisable for our banks to increase their capital? If they do not our merchants should see to it that some measure is adopted by which we may avoid such a stringent money market as ruled here last year, immediately following the [illegible] of the [illegible] harvest [illegible]. From the present [illegible] will [illegible] more [illegible] the [illegible] and fall than any [illegible] be provided for by the introduction of more capital, we will be crippled in our movements.

From the [illegible] Herald of Jan. [illegible] we clip the following:

Tonnage continues to be exceedingly scarce, the long prevailing winds from the northwest preventing vessels from [illegible] within [illegible] miles of the [illegible] Gate that will enter the first favorable change. RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,

OREGON & CALIFORNIA R. R. CO.

AND

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:

Pre-emption, [illegible] date, No. —.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company

Sir: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved [illegible] description of land in the county of [illegible] State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully [illegible]

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement and [illegible] privilege, upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, No. ——.

This is to certify that [illegible] of [illegible] county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the abovedescribed land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed)

Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and will [illegible] appraised. It is expected they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, [illegible] promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who [illegible] with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the [illegible] some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are tanners, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. Look in the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1865 and 1866. The only way to avoid them [illegible] to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians, in nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them, until you know who and what they are. Dr. G. [illegible] does not deceive people by exhibiting [illegible] certificates, pretending patients letters, etc. Dr. G. will satisfy any one who may call at his office of his ability [illegible] that he professes to [illegible] cure

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
